

Vono Box DJs aka Nafta & Suefo

Bio:

The duo started working together in 2002. They usually play a really eclectic set from easy listening, downtempo, silly electronica, hip-hop, jazz, funk, balkan and oriental stuff with loads of bootlegs. On the last years they played almost in every cafes, bars, clubs and festivals in Hungary and sometimes also in abroad in London, Milano, Vienna, Amsterdam, or Beograd. They have weekly residencies in the most popular underground venues of Budapest like ChaChaCha, Holdudvar, West-Balkan, A38, or Sark. What they play depends only from the place and the crowd – pure jazz, real hip-hop, balkan swing, or crazy electronica – it's not a problem, they enjoy to spin everything.

Played together with international artists like Ursula 1000, Jon Kennedy, Senor Coconut, Nouvelle Vague, Gilles Peterson, Asian Dub Foundation, DRM, DJ Shepdog, Buscemi, Kulturni Program, Jack To Phono, M.O.C. Paoli, Tosca, DJ Shir Khan, Soundhog, TY, Louie Austen, Sophie Rimheden, Pan Sonic, Stephane Pompougnac, Ed Royal, Fat Camp, Tom Strauch, Fatima Spar und die Freedom Fries, Saint Privat / Waldeck, Sergent Garcia, Mau Mau, !DelaDap, Caspian Hat Dance, Howie B., etc...

They not only spin but make own music and remixes too, some of their works released at cool labels like Guidance, Pulver, Poets Club, Chat Chapeau, United, or Kriztal Records. The guys run a weekly radio show on the legendary Radio Tilos FM 90,3 (www.tilos.hu) and make a webzine for the eclectic music scene (www.manamana.hu).

Their Erik Sumo remix at Pulver Records was a little hit in Budapest, it was the second most played hungarian track at Radiocafe 98,6 in the year 2006.

They works recently on different kind of remixes for artists like [dunkelbunt] (A), !DelaDap (A), Danilo Venturi (I), Jon Kennedy (UK), Orient Expression (T), Colorblind (F).

Their Pannonia Allstars Ska Orchestra (H), and Eastenders (D) remixes came out in November 2007 with a great success.

A new 12" compilation at the Munich based Jazz & Milk Records released in March with a Vono Box track (Pepita) too. They works for their debut EP on the same label.
